

elected Mayor of Milford—a post which he held for six years. Today, Alan is retiring after serving seven terms as the Town City Clerk—an elected office for which it is said he now runs unopposed out of sheer respect and the knowledge that no one else can truly compete. His years of service to the City of Milford have earned him the respect, admiration, and esteem of his colleagues on both sides of the aisle.

Alan's commitment to civic service extends far beyond his professional contributions. He has volunteered countless hours to innumerable service organizations. Alan is the former president of the Milford Rotary, has served as a United Way campaign worker as well as on the board of directors of the local Red Cross, and is a former First President of Milford Progress, Inc. Alan was also very involved with the local Boy Scouts where he served as a Volunteer Merit Badge Counselor and instituted Boy Scout Civic Day and Girl Scout Civic Day to promote civic pride and government studies. Alan can also be found giving his words of wisdom as "Uncle Sam" at the annual "Let Freedom Ring" bell ceremony on July 4th and volunteer reading at Milford public schools. And the list goes on. Alan Jepson is a reflection of all that we hope and expect community leaders to be. The City of Milford would not be the same without him so it was a fitting tribute when he was officially named and honored as a "living treasure." Alan's retirement marks the end of an era for the Milford community.

I am so proud to call Alan my friend. He and his late wife, Betty—a remarkable woman herself, welcomed me to their community with open arms and I will forever be grateful for their many years of special friendship and support. It is my privilege to stand today and extend my deepest thanks and appreciation to Alan H. Jepson and to wish him, his five daughters; Linda, Susan, Margo, Nancy, and Paula, as well as his eight grandchildren, three step-grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren all the best for many more years of health and happiness.

RYAN WHITE HIV/AIDS TREATMENT EXTENSION ACT OF 2009

SPEECH OF

HON. CHARLES B. RANGEL

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 21, 2009

Mr. RANGEL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to praise the passage of S. 1793, the Ryan White HIV/AIDS Treatment Extension Act of 2009. On behalf of the hundreds of thousands of people with HIV/AIDS who rely on the Ryan White Program, I would like to express my appreciation to the Committee on Energy and Commerce and to the Members of the U.S. House for having voted in favor of extending this important program for four more years. The Ryan White Program is the largest federally funded program for people living with HIV/AIDS. It funds programs to improve availability of care for low-income, uninsured and underinsured people with HIV/AIDS, and it provides funding and technical assistance to local and state primary medical care providers, support services, healthcare providers, and training programs.

HIV/AIDS is one of the fastest expanding epidemics in the United States, affecting more than 1 million people in the country. Over 530,000 low-income people with HIV/AIDS depend on the services provided through the Ryan White program. In my home of New York City, as of June 30, 2008, 104,234 people have been diagnosed and reported to be living with HIV/AIDS, including 63,899 living with AIDS. There are approximately 32,000 people living with HIV/AIDS in New York City that use Ryan White Part A services for medical treatment, support services, and other care that they would not otherwise be able to afford. People with the disease and care providers will benefit greatly from the extension of this program. There is a growing demand for these services because of the increase in infected people; I am pleased that this bill includes an increase in the authorization level for the program by 5 percent every year for the next four years.

The bill passed with strong support from both parties, in a 408 to 9 vote, and it will now go to the President's desk for signing into law. This is a great accomplishment.

Again, I am pleased that this great body understands the importance of this program and will fund it for another four years, but let us please keep in mind that more still needs to be done to end this pandemic.

RYAN WHITE HIV/AIDS TREATMENT EXTENSION ACT OF 2009

SPEECH OF

HON. JAMES R. LANGEVIN

OF RHODE ISLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 21, 2009

Mr. LANGEVIN. Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to rise in support of S. 1793, the Ryan White HIV/AIDS Treatment Extension Act.

There are nearly 40,000 new HIV/AIDS infections reported each year, and according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention approximately 1.1 million Americans are currently living with the disease. While contracting the HIV virus used to be considered a death sentence in our society, significant medical advances over the past 20 years have turned it into a very treatable condition. Today, many individuals with HIV are living long, happy and productive lives, but there are also many among us who don't have the means to access life-sustaining treatments and social supports.

The Ryan White HIV/AIDS Program was originally enacted in 1990 to provide HIV-related health services to those without sufficient health coverage or financial resources to cope with the disease. Last year, Rhode Island received approximately $7.2 million in funding and supplied 2,800 people with access to primary medical care and case management services, including $4.3 million in vital medications.

The bill before us today will authorize the continuation of this very successful program through FY 2013—including emergency relief, comprehensive care and early intervention programs. It will give our local, state and community partners the resources necessary to continue providing compassionate care for individuals living with HIV/AIDS. I strongly support this bill and urge my colleagues to vote in favor of its passage.

OCTOBER: DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH

HON. DAVID G. REICHERT

OF WASHINGTON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, October 22, 2009

Mr. REICHERT. Madam Speaker, the month of October is recognized around this country as "Domestic Violence Awareness Month" and

I rise today to urge this House to continue advocating for victims of domestic violence and to continue the fight against domestic violence.

According to the National Coalition Against Domestic Violence, a non-profit organization working tirelessly and cooperatively against the scourge of domestic violence, an estimated 1.3 million women are victims of physical assault by an intimate partner each year. One in four women will experience domestic violence in her lifetime and, at this point, one in six have already experienced an attempted or completed rape. I spent 33 years of my life in law enforcement, often on the front lines combating acts of domestic violence. During that time, I saw many horrific things. I have seen lives end, communities shattered and families torn apart due to domestic violence. The human cost of domestic violence in this country is astronomical. It touches lives in big cities, small towns and everywhere in between. Domestic violence knows no boundaries.

Violence is often a destructive cycle. A boy who witnesses acts of violence between parents or caretakers is twice as likely to become a perpetrator of domestic violence as an adult. Even worse, children who witness abuse and are themselves abused are even more prone to acts of domestic violence in adulthood. Generations of Americans have failed to break this terrible cycle of violence and even more alarmingly, many of those same Americans refuse to properly identify acts of domestic violence and seek help or protection. I ask the members of this House to remember these facts throughout this month and to please do everything in their power to combat domestic violence in congressional districts across the country. Support the National Coalition Against Domestic Violence and other like minded organizations. Support local law enforcement. Support community organizations like the Boys & Girls Club and churches. Urge your constituents to be mindful of the devastating effects of domestic violence.

Domestic violence is debilitating to families, communities and the United States as a whole and is entirely preventable. Every day, we have the opportunity to remind our constituents and our families to work together to rid our communities of domestic violence. As we make progress and fight against this injustice within, we must stay vigilant.

A TRIBUTE TO ED MCBRIDE

HON. ROBERT A. BRADY

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, October 22, 2009

Mr. BRADY of Pennsylvania. Madam Speaker, I rise to honor my dear friend, Ed McBride. After I was appointed to the Chair of the House Administration Committee, our colleagues nicknamed me the "Mayor of Capitol Hill." Since he became a manager in the Government Relations Department in 1991, Ed has been known as Mayor of PECO.

Ed McBride started working at PECO on September 15, 1969 as a Transportation Mechanic. For those of us in government, and for the people we serve, Ed is PECO. He acts as a voice for the customers within the company and as a voice for the company and its employees in the community.

Madam Speaker, Ed McBride is the consummate professional. He is also a gentleman in every sense of the word. I'm proud to say that Ed is my colleague, my constituent and my friend. I ask every Member of Congress to join me in honoring his 40 years of service today.

RYAN WHITE HIV/AIDS TREATMENT EXTENSION ACT OF 2009

SPEECH OF

HON. MICHAEL E. CAPUANO

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 21, 2009

Mr. CAPUANO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of S. 1793 the Ryan White HIV/AIDS Treatment Extension Act of 2009. This important bipartisan bill reauthorizes a program that has provided some of the most critical services to our country's most vulnerable populations for nearly two decades.

As you know, according to the CDC, approximately 1.1 million Americans are currently living with HIV/AIDS. While we have made tremendous strides in the treatment of HIV, prolonging and improving the lives of those with the disease, the need for funding to provide treatment to all those living with HIV/AIDS has, accordingly, greatly increased.

Furthermore, this epidemic has had an alarmingly disproportionate impact on communities of color. African Americans account for roughly 50% of HIV/AIDS diagnoses and Hispanics/Latinos 18 percent. We must properly address this troubling disparity and continue to work for improved access and treatment for racial and ethnic minorities living with HIV/AIDS.

The Ryan White HIV/AIDS Program offers a comprehensive, cost-effective solution to these challenges. Ryan White has been a monumental success and has most certainly contributed to the decline in the number of AIDS cases and deaths due to HIV/AIDS. S. 1793 is an important piece of legislation and I urge my colleagues to support it.

HONORING HEATHER CHRISTENSEN

HON. JIM MATHESON

OF UTAH

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, October 22, 2009

Mr. MATHESON. Madam Speaker, Utah has lost a local treasure with the passing of Ms. Heather Christensen of American Fork, Utah.

Heather Christensen is remembered by her joyfulness. Her friends and family said she was always smiling, laughing, and positive. As the woodwind section instructor for the American Fork High School band, she was known to work 18 hours a day. Heather was known to arrive at school early in order to help individual students and make sure they had a good experience. Her close friends said she believed in positive reinforcement as a way to motivate students.

Heather died trying to save 46 American Fork high school band students on October 12, 2009. A bus carrying the band crashed on Interstate 15 as they were returning after winning a competition at Idaho State University in Pocatello. After witnessing the bus driver pass out, she reached for the wheel and tried to steer the bus back to the road but fell out a window as the vehicle rolled. About 30 students sustained minor injuries, but thanks to Heather's fast action, none had life-threatening injuries.

Heather was a very talented young woman, who played multiple instruments and sang. Her family said she could play any instrument by ear and had perfect pitch. She was said to have been living her dream by working with the nationally recognized American Fork High band.

Heather grew up in American Fork and was the third of six children. She was the drum major at American Fork High School, and was also the student conductor for the school's a cappella choir. She went on to become a drum director at the University of Utah, where she earned both a bachelor's and masters in music education.

People have called Heather's actions heroic and I want to take a moment to honor this Utahn for her courage.
